Gentlemen:

A short time ago we sent you a letter regarding the Lafayette collection that you now have on exhibition at the French Museum. This letter has evidently miscarried, so I am writing again to ask if you would be willing to loan your collection to the Public Library of Jersey City for a Lafayette exhibition that we are planning to hold during the month of May.

A number of the exhibitors at the French Museum, including Judge Gardner, Mr. Stuart Jackson, Lafayette College, etc., have already arranged to loan us their collections and we are hoping that you also will be willing to do so.

Our exhibition rooms are equipped with locked display cases and all material loaned to us will be properly cared for and protected and suitably displayed with due acknowledgment to the lenders in the catalogs.

If you decide to lend us your collection, will you kindly notify Mrs. Mottet of the French Museum, so she may make her arrangements.

Your co-operation in the matter will be deeply appreciated.

Very truly yours,

E. W. Miller
President

Gentlemen:

Atten. E. W. Miller, Pres.
are

Confirming our telephone conversation, we most pleased to lend you the collection of Lafayette medals recently on display at the Museum of French Art - you to keep them approximately a month and then to return same to us. We have notified the French Museum that you will call for the medals very shortly.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Sir:

We have had no acknowledgment of our communication of the 13th, in which we consented to the loan of our Lafayette medals which you were to collect from the French Museum of Art. We should like to hear from you and to know whether these medals are now in your possession. We desire this as a matter of record.

Very truly yours,

Curator.

Dear Sir:

The Lafayette medals which you so kindly loaned us for our exhibition were duly received from the French Institute and are now on view in our exhibition rooms. I was under the impression that we sent you an acknowledgment as soon as we received them, but apparently this was not done. For this oversight, I offer my most sincere apologies.

The exhibition closes the latter part of this week and the medals will then be returned directly to your Museum. A copy of the catalogue of the exhibition is sent under separate cover.

I want to thank you for your courtesy and co-operation.

Very truly yours,

E. W. Miller

Dear Sir:

The Lafayette Medals which you so kindly loaned us for exhibition in the Jersey City Library will be returned within the next few days by our messenger.

The Exhibition was very successful and was visited by nearly one thousand persons all of whom expressed great interest and appreciation.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you on behalf of the Library Trustees for your courtesy and assistance.

The success of the Exhibition was largely due to your co-operation.

Very truly yours,
